asked about digitally penetrating her vagina with his fingers, Kevin advised that it definitely could have happened when he was tickling her stomach and thighs as she was kicking and moving around. When asked about how many times Kevin had licked her vagina during one portion of the interview, he advised that it would have occurred less than 5 times. He also advised that he would blow on her stomach and thighs while tickling her and advised that she would be kicking and moving around during many of those times. When asked when the first time one of these things happened was, Kevin stated that it would have been shortly after his divorce in approximately 2013. At that time, the victim would have been 7 or 8 years old.
