

OFFICE OF THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

Eric M. Hoffman, Prosecutor

46TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT of INDIANA

DELAWARE COUNTY, INDIANA

---

Date: November 8, 2024

RE: Job Posting for Felony Court Deputy Prosecutor

The Delaware County Prosecutor's Office is in search of an attorney who is committed to a career in criminal prosecution. Delaware County Prosecuting Attorney, Eric Hoffman, is seeking interested applicants for a position as a deputy prosecuting attorney assigned to a felony court responsible for prosecuting felony offenses. The position will become open on January 1, 2025.

The basic qualifications for the position are:

- Licensed to practice law in Indiana
- Talent in both written and oral communication
- Team player who truly cares about his/her colleagues
- Willingness to live in or near Delaware County

Superlative qualifications for the position are:

- A desire to protect the innocent, not just blindly enforce criminal statutes
- A desire to develop into a "great trial lawyer" or "fantastic trial lawyer," not merely aspire to be a "good trial lawyer"
- A craving to join and learn from an elite team of trial lawyers.

The preferred candidate is self-motivated to achieve professional improvement, and confident in an ability to surpass exceptionally high expectations for performance and leadership in the area of criminal justice.

Salary will be commensurate with experience. The salary range is $95,000 – $105,000 based on experience and courtroom ability. This is a full-time position with county health insurance (including dental and eye) as well as participation in Public Employees Retirement Fund (PERF). Employment with this office qualifies for Public Service Loan Forgiveness <https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/public-service>. If selected, the applicant can begin work January 1, 2025.

A cover letter, resume, writing sample, and references may be submitted to:
